Response to Arguments

1. This communication is in response to applicants' response received on March 18, 2005.
2. The amendments of claims 1 and addition of claims 37-38 are acknowledged. It is also acknowledged that the new claims and amendments of the claim 1 do not introduce any new matter.
3. Applicants' arguments have been fully considered but are moot in view of the new ground of rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000.

Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

Claims 37 and 38 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Brandt et al (6,125,384) (hereinafter Brandt).

Regarding claims 37 and 38, Brandt discloses:

receiving data corresponding to a data output process requested by a user (see col. 5, lines 7-18; col. 5, lines 41-52; col. 8, lines 16-19);

receiving an output job code corresponding to the data output process (see col. 3, lines 35-42; col. 12, lines 28-41; col. 14, lines 11-22; col. 14, lines 41-51; col. 19, lines 2-12, where the conversation identifier corresponds to the recited output job code and it is received by the activity program 432 of Fig. 4); and outputting the data associated with the output job code (see col. 19, lines 24-47).

Allowable Subject Matter

Claim 1 is allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The primary reasons for the allowance of the independent claim 1 is the inclusion of the following limitation that is not found in the prior art and they are uniquely distinct features. The closest prior art is Brandt et al (6,125,384) (hereinafter Brandt). Brandt discloses a system for providing services to users that includes a web server that controls the users' access to online services by authenticating them. Brandt also discloses an Internet application gateway that generates a conversation identifier for the request of each user and assigns the identifier to a service which is provided to a user. This art fails to anticipate or render the following limitations:

"Claims 1:an input-output control unit which receives data from said service provision unit, and the output job code, and outputs data associated with the output job code, wherein
data in the database is read out through operation from said input-output control unit".

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
